WESSEX MALE CHOIR TO COMPETE IN CHELTENHAM FESTIVAL

Wessex Male Choir is preparing for its first major competition of the year at the Cheltenham Festival of Performing Arts on 17 May.

The choir will compete in four classes including;

- Male Choirs
- Sacred Music
- Folk Songs
- Songs from the Shows

Rob Elliott, musical director says, "Taking part in competitions such as the Cheltenham Festival is great for the choir. It really focuses our attention and helps raise the already high standard of singing we set for ourselves. We have been preparing for this over the past few weeks and are looking forward to competing in some challenging groups."

The festival is a celebration of dance, music, speech and drama and attended by thousands of competitors of all ages. With a reputation of outstanding quality of performance this festival should be the ideal arena for the Wessex Male Choir to shine!

Are you interested in joining Wessex Male Choir?

All you need is a passion for singing! The choir rehearses on Tuesday evenings in Swindon and interested singers of all ages will receive a warm welcome. For more information contact Rob Elliott on 07710 197789 or email musical.director@wessexmalechoir.co.uk
