WESSEX MALE CHOIR STARTS 2009 WITH CHARITY CONCERT

Swindon's Wessex Male Choir will be performing at their first concert of the year in Lechlade on 24th January in aid of the Royal National Lifeboat Association.

The concert is taking place at the Memorial Hall in Lechlade and starts at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £10 and are available from Lechlade Newsagents, Lechlade and Fairford branches of White Horse Estate Agents or by calling Mrs J Tyrell on 01367 252928.

The award-winning choir enjoyed competition success last year and looks set for another busy year in 2009. Musical Director, Robert Elliot said, "We are looking forward to starting the year with a great concert in Lechlade.

"The choir is hoping to grow throughout 2009 and we will warmly welcome new members of any age, or singing experience! Anyone interested in joining is invited to come to a rehearsal to meet the choristers and see what's involved. Or of course you come along to the concert in Lechlade and see us in action!"

The choir rehearses in north Swindon on Tuesday evenings between 7:30 - 9:30pm. For further details contact membership secretary, Andy Marshall on Tel: 01793 704913 / 07710197789 or by e-mail at membership@wessexmalechoir.co.uk
